

Below is a Statement from Human Resources which addresses this topic.

“Temporary Employees with Benefits

Upon receiving a layoff notice, a temporary employee's Basic Group Life, Dental, Supplementary Health, and Optional Insurance's will terminate on their final day of work.

These employees are eligible to apply for individual coverage directly with the Company's insurance carriers within 31 days of termination through the conversion option provided under the Company's plan.